These books are for the first stage for those who want to start the shar’ and have experience in each part of the shar’.

In the end Ustadh Osama may Allah Ta’ala protect him says :

after finishing this stage and understanding the topics and knowing the situation of the groups surely for this the person has to know Arabic and have experience in it and also has to understand then after those books he starts reading the books of the salaf and the big books because those books give good insight to the readers of them and he will have a steadfast manhaj and Aqeedah by the will of Allah then he will have insight to be able to read books in a manhaji way and he won’t get misguided.
